The Hon. A. P. Gorman finds unceasing delight in two games—polities and base ball. Of the former he has had a surfeit lately. Now he looks for amusement to the diamond, and seldom misses a contest at the National Park.

Senator Butler, of South Carolina, is a devoted admirer of the drama, especially when the play is of that order which relies for success more on the beauty of its scenery, female and otherwise, than on literary ment or able acting. When once the pretty girl of the play comes upon the stage he is totally lost to all else, and never lowers his glasses till she disappears.

Senator Howell Jackson, of Tennesses, contributes more to the support of the drama than any other man in public life. Four nights a week at the thester is not an unusual average for him. Opera is his especial delight.

Senator Ingalls is fond of comedy. He has a keen appreciation of humor, more particularly the subtle humor of some old English comedies. There is no public man who has a keener sense of the ridiculous, and no man can show his enjoyment by a heartier laugh.

Senator Call, of Florida, attends sense of the ridiculous, and no man can show his enjoyment by a heartier laugh.

Senator Call, of Florida, attends the theater quite frequently, but has only once or twice been known to smile, and even on those memorable occasions the smiles are said to have come in at the wrong place. A joke is something that the Florida Senator has never been able to comprehend. A pun is just so much Choetaw to him. Senator Frye is seen more frequently in the billiard room than at the theater. He is an excellent shot, sometimes making runs of fifteen in a three-ball game. He likes riding, too, and takes delight in displaying his little grand-daughter, who invariably occupies a position on his knee during his drives.

The crack billiardist of Congress is Warner Miller. The Senator from New York handles a cue as gracefully as Slosson, and thinks it nothing to run up thirty points in an inning. He is fond of society, in which he shines on account of his polished manners. In the Senate, however, he is utterly lost, and seems to be in a constant state of wonder at the unaccountable freak of fortune that put him there.

accountable freak of fortune that put him there.

Senator Bowen, of Colorado, gained a wide reputation at home as a poker player, nor has his fame diminished since his advent into poker circles in Washington. When he sits down for a game he assumes the innocent expression of the "Heathen Chinee," and can manipulate the cards quite as successfully as Bret Harte's hero. Like all men of genius, he is modest, never playing except when pressed; but once into it and he can scrape up more flushes than any player known.

Senator Coke's favorite recreation is hunting up old books in the Capitol Library and in the book stores about town. With a tattered book and a very bad cigar he passes his leisure hours, varying occasionally by substituting some Lose Star whisky for the cigar.

One of the leading pedestrians of Washington is Senator Jones, of Florida. His towering figure is familiar to all the residents of northwest Washington.

John Sherman seems to relish no

Senator Vest is fond of good dinners and the jovial conversations to which they give rise. As a story teller he ranks high, but lacks the finish of Senator Vance, who is the champion humorist of the Senate.

Senator Vest admires athletic sports. He was quite a famous athlete himself in the days of his reporter's life in Kentucky. High living has since taken the elasticity out of his body and robbed his once well-turned limbs of their suppleness. He is still a tolerable billiard player, however, and occasionally displays his skill in the hotel pool rooms.

Wade Hampton is a personal friend of John McCullough and Lawrence Barrett. When these actors are in the city he is one of their first callers. He has given dinners in their honor both here and at his home, and is a regular attendant at their performances.

senator Allison, who a few years ago was the jolliest of public men, is almost a hermit now, living a retired life, and never appearing at places of in it freely for the ceneral sas organ.

The new Senators who came to last session, are rather a solemn set. They include such menas Spooner, the skeletonian railroad lawyer; Eustis, the cranky Louisianian; and Chace, the Rhode Island Quaker.—{Philadelphia Times.

[Passed July 12, 1888.]

[Passed July 12, 1888.]

NDER AND BY AUTHORITY OF THE laws of the State of Nevada, the Board of County Commissioners of Washoe county, Nevada, do ordain as follows:
Section 1. Whenever, in the judgment of the Board of County Commissioners, it is necessary to establish the grade of any street, alley or sidewalk within the limits of the town of Reno, the Board shall, by resolution, duly recorded in the records of the Board, designate the particular street or alley wherein such grades are to be established, and by actual surveys, cause such grade or grades to be marked with iron pins, and a map thereof to be filed in the office of the County Clerk; and when the map shall have been so filed, the grades so marked and therein designated shall be deemed established; and shall not thereafter be changed except upon petition signed by persons representing at least three-fourths of the street or alley effected by the proposed alteration or change. And where grades have been so established all buildings and sidewalks thereafter constructed or reconstructed shall be made to conform to such established grades.

The following platform and resolutions were adopted by the Republican State Convention, which convened at Winnemuces on the 15th instant:

15th instant;

The Republicans of the State of Nevada, in Convention assembled, again express their loyalty to the principles of the Republican party, which have made this country so great and prosperous during the last quarter of a century.

RESOLVEN, That the question of a sufficient supply of circulating medium to maintain a permanent range of the price of labor and property is the most important political question awaiting solution by the American people.

That a diminishing quantity of money reduces the price of labor and property enriches the creditor, impoveriabes the debtor, and paralyzes industry and enterprise.

That the present financial system of the reduces the price of labor and property enriches the creditor, impoveriahes the debtor, and paralyzes industry and enterprise.

That the present financial system of the United States, which increases or diminiahes the circulating medium at the piesaure of the manipulators of the national banks, without regard to the increase of population or the wants of the people, and which recognizes gold alone as the standard of value, and places in the hands of the Treasury Department all the revenue of the Government to speculate with in bonds and lean to the national banks without interest, is subsersive of the rights of the people, oppressive, unjust and should be repudiated. That a financial policy whereby both gold and silver shall form the basis of circulation, whether the money used by the people be coin, or coin certificates redeemable in coin, or both, as convenience may require, is imperatively demanded.

That the attempt to substitute national bank notes, costing the Government millions of dollars annually, for free silver, costing nothing, is an outrage upon the people; that the money ring or trust, which has usurped the sovereign power of the Government to lasue money, and which has fraudulantly demonetized silver and seized the revenues of the Government for private specification, shocks the moral sense of the people and destroys respect for gove noment and law. We demind that the ring or trust be destroyed, and equal rights be restored to all the people.

We charge that President Claveland is the willing tool or agent of a powerful money ring, which fittens on the subsidies of the Government, borrows the revenues raised by it xation and mass them without the payment of interest, contracts the currency to tenhance the value of bonds, and curiches as paper currency at the expense of the Government, borrows the revenues raised by it xation and mass them without the payment of interest, contracts the currency to tenhance the value of bonds, and curiches as paper currency at the bonded indebted national banks or people of the country—se people of the rich.

That the trick of the President and his advisers by which they prevented avote in the House of Representatives on the Beck silver amendment to the Bond Purchase bill, equals the villainy of the secret and fraudulent demonstration of silver in 1873.

RESOLVED, That we are in favor of the protection of home industry, and that the isborers of this country have a right to all the work required to supply the people of the United States, and that we are in favor the work required to supply the people of the United States, and that we said in favor of high wages, and to that end will protect the wage-workers from competition with the cheap labor of other lands.

RESOLVED, That the policy of the Government should be insugurated and established by the p ople torough their representatives in both her as of Congress, and not by the President or money trust, of which he, either as agent or head, is most active in defending.

We charge President Cleveland with violating every promise he made in favor of civil service reform, with eripping the mail service, with refusing to alga necessary bills for the improvement of rivers and harbors, with using the power of his administration to prevent appropriations for many and coast defenses, with stiemnting to destroy the protective tarif, with couring the good will of other nestions at the expense of the citizens of the nited States, and with joining the foreign bondholders to demonstite allver and destroy the industries of his own country, and for the reduction of the wages of the Mini employes at Carsom, for closing the Carson Mint when it was not only self-sustaining but a source of revenue to the Government, for his contemptuous vetors of bills for the relief of disabled soldiers and vallors, and for failing to construct the Government huilding at Carson as required by law.

We are in favor of the absolute exclusion of the insor market is made worse, and we favor lagislation by which the overcharged condition of the labor market is made worse, and we favor lagislation and land laws may be accomplished.

We demand in behalf of our various in dustries the retention of the duties on lead; borar, soda, hides and leather, and to restore the tariff of leef on wool.

RESOLVED, That we recognize the right of labor to organize for its lawful protection.

VII. We favor the appropriations by Congr for hydrographical and topographical a veys in this State, to the end that the wa waters may be preserved for the purpose trigation.

We endorse the wise and conservative administration of Governor Stevenson, and wa heartily commend the able efforts of Senstors Jones and Stewart and Representative woodbarn in behalf of the interests of this State.

Extol Their Corruption.

In their treatment of the negro and their conduct of elections, the Southern Legislators no longer confess and avoid, but confess and terrible arraignment of Demo-Chandler of New Hampshire in regard to the late Louisiana elections, Senator Cope of Texas, on behalf of his party, made no other would show frauds on the elective franchise and intimidation of those to Charles F. and William H. Crocker for Mrs. Harriet Alexmuch more common at the North much more common at the North than in the South." This bit of pettifoggery was answered by Senchildren, a d if she dies without ator Chandler thus: "The Senater's statement is on record. If he and thus the unhappy fate of the negro serves but to point a bit of Senatorial repartee.

AND now the voice of the New Cleveland, but it has apparently been reading some of the Democratic papers of this coast and has grown tired enough to throw up its job. It thus speaks of its esteemed contemporaries in San the executors, so that they may be Francisco: "What dreary fol de saved legal expenses. rol and nonsense is all this stuff about Harrison's Chinese record. It is the insane drivel of political idiocy, and has no more to do with the Republican Senators an oppor-of the members of the family. As tunity and the first one they have yet there has been no indication, had of dealing with vigor and and probably no determination, finality with the question. But it as to how the millions invested in is shrewdly stated that so favorable is the treaty to the Chinese, Mr. Crocker seems to have had all even with the most stringent legislation which may be passed under it, that there is too much reason to fear that ultimately the wily Orien tals will give their consent to its ratification. The Pacific Coast has some time ago reached the final conclusion that no aid is to be expected from the Democracy.

THE Democratic party wants to reduce the American workingmen to the condition of the Mexican peons. For what is Bill Scott's idea of making the workingman eat up to-day what he earns to-morrow but the idea which has made the Mexican peon? With Free Trade to cut down the wages and Bill Scott to "boss" them, the owner of the patents, that two condition of American citizens who labor for their living will not be equal to that of the Mexican peons. 'The remedy lies in the people themselves.

"WE venture to assert," says the British Hosiery Review, "that England will reap the largest share of any advantages that may arise from the adoption of the ideas now advanced by the free trade party of the United States." Having witnessed the Democratic adoration of the bandana the Hosiery Review cheerfully contemplates that the party may next turn its attention to clean socks.

DEMOCRATIC authority now fixes the surplus at $26,000,000 instead of $100,000,000, or $180,000,000, or any of the other enormous figures with which the nation was to have en terrified. What then becomes of the Mills bill which, upon the authority of the man whose name it bears, was to reduce the surplus

CROCKER'S VAST ESTATE

The Disposition Made of the Prop erty of the Great Railrot SAN FRANCISCO, August 31 .-Charles F. Crocker filed the will of his recently deceased father, Charles Crocker, for probate Wednesday afternoon. The document, which is quite voluminous, is dated May 2, 1887, and disposes of an estate valued at $25,259,637.60, half of which, it being community property, goes to the widow, who also gets the local and the Sacramento residences and all their furnishings. extol their corruption. In the Bequests of $10,000 each are made to Fanny and Julia Crocker, cratic methods made by Senator daughters of Clark W. Crocker, brother of the deceased, and of $22,000 to Edgar, son of Clark W. The Herald supports widow, Mary Ann Crocker, Charles F. and William H. Crocker, and they are given full power to act in all matters without bonds or the intervention of a Court. A codicil dated May 2, 1887, and signed May 3, 1887, bequeaths all the real estate, except that given to the widow, to High License a Success. St. Paul, Aug. 31.—The Pioneer Press reviews the first year of high license in Minnesota, and says the system has proved all its friends system has proved all its friends claimed for it. In the State there are only 1,597 saloons against 2,806 when the law went into effect. There is a decreased consumption of liquor in nearly every county, all the low groggeries are closed, and the liquor business is under better police aupervision. The cost of licenses formerly averaged $300, and the total income $850,000. Now the license is $650 and the income $1,100,000.

STE FLAVIE, Quebec, Aug. 30.— On Saturday last the steamship Bratsburg, coal laden, went ground near Ste. Felide, twenty miles below Matane, from which place Captain Neilson telegraphed on Sunday to Quebec for assistance. A fearful storm sprang up Sunday night, and the ateamer began to break up. The crew of seventeen men took to the small boats, which were upset, and fifteen of the seventeen were drowned. OLD WORLD WHEAT.

A Great Shoringe Which the United New York, Aug. 31.—The Times has a long cable which estimates that the Old World needs seventy to eighty million bushels of wheat more than the harvest of the year will produce. To put it in another way, the countries which always have to buy wheat must this year buy $70,000,000 bushels, while year buy 870,000,000 bushels, while the countries raising more than they consume, will have about 295,-000,000 bushels to sell.

The storms of the past week have greatly damaged wheat in England, and the great wheat producing country of France, which it was thought a week ago would import 68,000,000 bushels, will now have, it is estimated, to import 80,-000,000 to 95,000,000. Algiers cannot supply much on account of 000,000 to 95,000,000. Algiers cannot supply much on account of grasshoppers. The best estimates put the surplus of the United States and Canada at 103,000,000; Russia, 90,000,000; India, 35,000,000. But all sorts of stories are coming from Russia that are unfavorable. In London bread has come up one penny per loaf. The potato crop in England and in Ireland is a partial failure, and great distress is believed to be certain.

The Times, summarizing the re-ports from all parts of the United States, says we have enough wheat for home consumption, but not a c. w. BOOTON. great deal to spare.

The Retailation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. - The Committee on Foreign Affairs today received a report from the sub-Committee on the retaliation bill. The Chairman said that in these questions the Committee had always acted without regard to partisanship, and he hoped it would continue to do so. He referred to the fact that the bill introduced by the fact that the bill introduced by himself two years ago, containing a restrictive railroad provision, had been adopted by the House almost unanimously, though the railroad section was subsequently stricken out in the Senate.

The Committee unanimously adopted the amended bill reported by the sub-Committee. It is un-derstood that the bill will be called up for action on Saturday.

The " Black Caps." LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 31.-An organization known as the "Black Caps" is driving people from their homes in Lawrence county. This organization recently whipped several white men living on the border of Randolph county, and a number of the band were arrested and will be tried shortly in the United States Court at this place. Three colored men living near Portia were taken out, severely flogged and ordered to leave the county. Governor Hughes is awaiting official information from the Sheriff of Lawrence county before taking any action in the matter.

The petition for the partition of the Lake estate will be heard in the District Court to-morrow, provided Judge Bigelow arrives from Elko to-night, as is expected. The estate is valued at $280,000, of which Myron C., the son, is entitled to one-half, and Mrs. Jane Lake, the widow, and William Thompson to the remainder. An eastern man who has traveled the coast said this morning that the finest beefsteak he had ever ate he got at the Depot hotel. Said he: "They say that the boarders at the Depot are happy and content, and I don't wonder at it."

The Directors of the State Fair have offered very liberal premiums for fancy work, etc., the result being that many of the ladies are busily engaged in preparing samples of their handiwork for exhibition. As there will be plenty of room in the department assigned for exhibits of this kind, every lady should compete for a prize.

"Fasst." days and Fridays of each week during the present irrigation season or until further notice. The reason for the request is simply this: In order to aid the Glendale farmers, it has been agreed between the several ditch companies taking water from the river above town to shut down on certain days. The Reno Water Company obtains its supply from the Highland ditch which company has agreed to shut the water out of its ditch on Thursday of each week for twenty-four hours. As a result all the water the Reno Water Company will have to supply its customers, will be a reserve in its reservoirs (not including the fire reserve), of not to exceed two days supply. Therefore, if the people persist in irrigating on the days specified (Thursdays and Fridays), the water reserve will not last twenty-four hours.

ocal and General Intelligence. One Bundred and Thirty-two Mil-Harvey Fisk & Sons of New York, ankers and dealers in Government bonds, have issued the following cirular which tells its own tale:

The last statement issued by James W. Hyatt, Treasurer of the United States, under date of July 31, 1888, gives the "surplus" then in his hands as Treasurer, including the fractional silver coin, as $132,517,751.55. In addition to this amount, by the same cover accrued interest on bonds, $43,-307,795.30 to meet "Disbursing Officer's balances," etc., $96,740,339,38 for redemption of notes of national banks failed," etc., $100,000,000 "reserve for redemption of United States notes." In short, the Treasurer of the United States had in his custody on that date, in money, $732,775, 527.76, against which has been issued gold, silver and legal tender certificates to the amount of $350,844,791, all leaving $381,930,736.76 in his hands, of which $132,500,000 is clear "surplus." This does not seem right, especially as the United States Government had outstanding on that date $1,014,138,142 interest-bearing debt on over a thousand millions of which it is paying interest at four to six per cent, per annum.

The Secretary of the Treasury has full authority in his hands, under Acts ruli authority in his hands, under Acts of Congress, to purchase of these interest bearing bonds—and stop the interest running longer on all so purchased—up to the extent of the "Surplus." Plenty of bonds can be had to save the Government two per cent. per annum for the years they may have to run.

Since the Secretary of the Treasure.

have to run.

Since the Secretary of the Treasury commenced to purchase with the surplus money in April last, he has, by official statements from the Department at Washington, purchased, up to August 21st, $33,601,150 fours and four-and-a-halfs, on which he has reade a saving to the precole in future. and four-and-a-nails, on which he has made a saving to the people in future interest payments upwards of $12,000,-000, and this after allowing for all premiums paid; and with the surplus money now in the Treasury, he could save the people, in addition, forty millions more of future interest pay-ments and take this "Great Peril" and menace to every interest of the country out of the calculation of bus-

The enormous crops of the land now just beginning to move, the cotton crop of the South on which we depend so much to pay the balance of foreign trade—all these interests demand that they shall not be imperilled by lack of action on the part of the Adminis-

The spirit of the law authorizing the Secretary to purchase bonds, is clear and unmistakable, that, whenever a "surplus" accumulates over the $100,-000,000 reserve to be held against the greenbacks, it shall be used, above a fair working balance, to decrease the debt by purchasing bonds at the mar-ket price; that "Surplus," now, is $132,500,000 over the greenback reserve. The Secretary has saved the people, as stated above, about $12,-000,000 on his purchases so far; therefore there is every good reason why, as long as he can get bonds, he should increase this saving, decrease the in-terest bearing debt, comply with the spirit of the law and take this "Great Peril" of a large "Surplus" from the business of the country. The four per cent. bonds now have nineteen years to run; two per cent. per annum for each year they have to run would be 38 per cent. If the bonds The jury in the Black fratricide case failed to agree and were discharged. They stood seven for acquittal and five for manslaughter. Virginia City per cent., or $1,760. To save two per cent. per annum the Government of $1,000 would cost the Gover could pay up to 138 per cent., or $1,380 for each bond; but millions could be purchased at and under 130 per cent., or $1,300 for each bond. The "fourand-a-halfs," to save two per cent. per annum, would have to be bought at not over 108% per cent.; it might be very difficult to secure many millions at a better price than to save the Government five per cent. gross for the short term they have to run. The "Currency Sixes," not yet included in Government purchases could be had in fair quantities to ne the Government over 2¼ per cent. saving for each year they have to run. Therefore, as large dealers in Government bonds, we do not hesitate to give our opinion that the Government should invest the whole surplus of the save on the save of the sav $135,500,000 to save on the average two per cent. for each year the bonds have to run, and this is exactly two

Government is getting on its large balances lying in the Treasury and National Banks drawing no interest.

The evils of a "surplus" are best corrected by not having any. The present "surplus" and its evils can,
in a few months, be all done away with by using it to reduce—at the best price the bonds can be purchased—the interest bearing debt; much to the saving and comfort of the people.
After this fiscal year, judging from the temper of both political parties, there will not be much "surplus" after providing for the Sinking Fund, to trouble the business of the country.

While the people at all times desire that their public servants should be statement, he held: $9,064,350.53 to able to stand the Jacksonian test, they are at this time especially interested in having capable men selected to rep-resent them in the next Legislature. Several important matters of legisla-tion affecting the interest of Washoe county will call for effective and intelligent consideration. Among others that might be named are matters per-taining to the State Fair, State University, sewer bonds and other mat-ters pertaining to the town of Reno, and above all the storage and distribu-tion of the waters of the Truckee river. Upon the latter question all concede that legislation is all concede that legislation is necessary. It may be, and in all probability will be, found necessary to enact a law sufficiently broad enough to enable our people by means of storage to obtain a sufficient supply of water and to control and regulate its use. With individuals the questions of the storage tion of storage is very simple, for the reason that but one interest is to be consulted, while with the waters of the Truckee and the multiplicity of connected therewith, nterests connected therewith, the question presents an altogether different face. The corporation or individual who inaugurates a system of storage and uses the river to conduct the water to his ditch below would need a standing army of bailiffs to prevent others from appropriating it. It seems important, therefore, that both the use and supply of water should be

It also says: "The Oakland boats are late every trip because the com-pany's treasury has been so depleted by rash expenditures that it cannot afford a sufficient number of deck hands. The Sacramento train is late every day because the road is in such bad repair that twenty-five miles an hour is a dangerous rate of speed. The mountain divisions are absolutely un-safe, and, unless the management is safe, and, unless the management is soon improved, there will be an accident that will put the whole State of California in mourning. The road is short of engines, short of cars, the rails are old and splintered, switches worn out, bridges dangerous, fences broken and everything is run on a half-starved basis, yet the company is so short of money that salaries have been left unpaid, and men in high places are asked to wait for their money. And all this, too, with the biggest business the road has everdone, and at high prices. Hopkins' death, Stanford's political ambition, Eastern affairs have left the road in the hands of lobbyists, jobbers and

MUTILATED EARS.

Cruel Punishments of the Olden Time. Any mutilation of the ear which involves the loss of a portion or all of it has always been a mark of disgrace. In one of the statutes of Edward VI, the penalty affixed for its violation is the "loss of an ear and perpetual infamy."
In those days the celluloid ear had not been invented and the loss of one of these members was a public hadge of shame for

Following the retributive law of Moses, probably the punishment originated in the ecclesiaatical courts. It is first mentioned in the trials of offenses against the church and some of the earless clericals were noted men. The sentence to the pillory frequently had the additional pun-ishment of the loss of one or both ears

Daniel Fooe, or Foe, later in life known as Daniel Defoe, wrote a pamphlet called "The Shortest Way with the Dissenters," and lost his ears. Pope, in his "Dunelad," speaks of the author of "Robinson Cru-

He was placed in the pillory three times. That instrument being on a raised plat-form explains the line.

Dr. Bastwick, who published more pamphlets than pills, concluded one of his essays with: "From plagus, pest-lence and famine, from bishops, priests and deacons, good Lord deliver us." This was so serious an affront that the doctor was sentenced to the pillory and to lose both his ears.

The execution of his sentence was a sort of public fete. His friends gathered before the pillory and shouted words of encouragement. His wife climbed upon the pillory and kissed him. When his ears were cut off "she put them in a clean handkerchief" and carried them home.

The celebrated Prynne suffered a similar punishment.

The names of lesser criminals have escaped the permanent records but Blackstone mentions a number of early English Parliamentary enactments making the loss of an ear a penalty in law.

Fighting in a church or churchyard, by acts passed during the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Edward VI, meant the loss of both ears. If the prisoner had no ears—which implies that there were habitual criminals 350 years ago—he was to be branded with the letter F in the

In the second and third years of the alers and artificers to raise the price of provisions or the rate of labor, for the third offense were punished by the pillory and the loss of an ear. The statute not only extended to the combinations to raise wages but to regulate the quantity of work or to lessen the hours of labor.

In later years the loss of an ear or part of one has also been regarded as implying disgrace. One of the favorite ways of mutilating an enemy in a rough and tumble fight is to bite off his ear. In disreputable brawls and in low resorts brute reputable brawls and in low resorts brute instinct makes ear mutilation a fit revenge for almost any wrong.

FLOWERS IN THE HAT.

Where Wearing a Bouquet Is a Most

quet, picked from the flower-pots in her window.

Should she prove fickle, and jilt the swain, the other young men of the village assemble under her window and throw down the flower pots.

A stranger wonders, on seeing so many men with bouquets stuck in their hats, why they do not marry, especially as not a few of them are what we call "old bachetors." The explanation is that the village commune will not allow any person to marry unless he can show that he lastaid by a sum of money aufficient to support a family.

A lady, traveling through Tyrol in a stellwagon, a cross between a diligence and an omnibus, overheard the driver talking to a man at his side on the hox, and complaining of his occupation.

He had worked hard for many years, he said, to get money enough to marry; but the sum was far below what it must be before the communes would give him permission to marry the woman to whom he was engaged. It increased so slowly that he did not know if he should ever get the coveted permission.
